

Evaluation form of an article to be published in „Issues of Forensic Science” quarterly

Author
Title
Number of pages

OVERALL EVALUATION

Please answer
YES or NO

1	Is the subject matter of an article new or original?
2	Does it broaden the knowledge about the given subject matter?
3	Is the manuscript useful for the training and practice in the field of forensic science?
4	Does the title reflect the content of an article?
5	Is the goal clearly defined?
6	Is the article well organized (division into chapters etc.)?
7	Is the methodology properly explained?
8	Do the conclusions result from the presented research findings?
9	Is the manuscript written in an appropriate language?
10	Is the literature correctly selected and quoted?
11	Does the manuscript contain unnecessary content? If so: (a) the following drawings may be omitted in the text (b) the following photographs may be omitted in the text (c) the following tables may be omitted in the text
12	Should the article be: (a) published in its current form? (b) published after minor corrections? (c) re-evaluated after significant corrections? (d) rejected?
13	Final rating (on a scale of 0 do 10)

DETAILED EVALUATION

(Please enumerate the comments providing the page number and the line number)

The subject matter of an article is in the primary scientific interest of a reviewer. There is no conflict of interest with regard to the reviewed publication.